

CONTEMPORARY WAVE

KickArts Contemporary Arts invites you to enter work for selection for Contemporary Wave, a survey of contemporary artforms showcasing the current work from some of Australia's most outstanding and emergent artists. This exhibition may include painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, installation, sculpture and multi-media.

Artists chosen by the curatorial panel will be included in the group exhibition to be held at KickArts Contemporary Arts in 2009 and 2010. The exhibition is an opportunity for artists to present their work in an A Class Gallery amongst their peers, supported by professional documentation and gallery services, and is open to entrants nationally and internationally.

Please read all of the terms and conditions carefully and be sure to complete all entry details before returning your application.

ENTRY LIMITATIONS

Limitations are reflected by the physical capacity of the KickArts Contemporary Arts Gallery and influenced by occupational health and safety guidelines relevant to the space. A floor plan of the gallery is attached to the entry form outlining the physical limitations of the space. It should be noted the gallery does have a double height space - the 'void' - that may accommodate larger works or works of an installation based nature. A weight limit of 20 kg for any individual component will be enforced.

- 2 dimensional works may not exceed 1.5 metres in height and 3 metres in length. (the maximum length applies to the full width of works with multiple panels)
- 3 dimensional works should not exceed 3 metres in height, width or depth.
- Installations may not exceed a floor space of 4 metres square.
- Video works requiring more than 2 projection sources will not be considered unless the artist can supply the required equipment for presentation.
- For complex installations and site-specific works the artist must be available to install the work on-site once KickArts has approved the work.

THE TERMS

A completed entry form indicates that, if your application is successful, you authorise the reproduction of images of your work including extracts from your artist statement and CV in publicity, marketing, invitations, the KickArts website and exhibition publications associated with the exhibition.

Selected artists are responsible for the freight of their artwork to and from KickArts Contemporary Arts.

If Artwork will be for sale in this Exhibition, please be aware that KickArts sells Artwork on a sale or return basis and therefore Australian Taxation Legislation requires that 10% Goods and Services Tax (GST) be applied to all Artwork sales. A commission of 40% of the retail price ex GST will be taken from all works sold during the period of the Exhibition. Please contact the KickArts Shop if you require further clarification on sales and pricing.

All sales must go through KickArts and under no circumstances should sale arrangements be made for private sale while the Work is being exhibited in the KickArts Galleries.
