

KickArts will be setting up a membership program for Djumbunji Press so you can get involved in the programs that will be offered and access the studio.

If you are interested in being notified please complete this form and return to KickArts Contemporary Arts. We will keep you updated of the studio's progress and let you know when the membership program will be launched.

Name

Postal address

Contact number

Email

The following categories have been compiled based on feedback from artists. Please tick your areas of interest and if there are others please add them in the sections provided.

Workshops for beginners to experienced printmakers in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> screenprinting | <input type="checkbox"/> monoprinting |
| <input type="checkbox"/> linocuts | <input type="checkbox"/> screenprinting |
| <input type="checkbox"/> etching | <input type="checkbox"/> lithography |

other

Access to master classes with our Artists in Residence program

Workshops for beginners with no experience

Workshops for artists with some experience

Volunteering for:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> workshops | <input type="checkbox"/> studio maintenance |
| <input type="checkbox"/> edition printing | <input type="checkbox"/> fundraising |

other

Queensland
Government
Arts Queensland

The Queensland Government is the foundation partner of Djumbunji Press through its Backing Indigenous Arts program.

Generously supported by James Cook University

kickArts
CONTEMPORARY ARTS

PO Box 6090
Cairns 4870
T 07 4050 9493
www.kickarts.org.au

Front: Arone Meeks, Munuiti (Turtle) 2008
Linocut printed in black ink from one block, paper: Arches BFK 290gsm matrix size: 300 x 150 mm, edition size: 50